4. Purpose of processing personal data / purpose of the register

Personal data is collected and processed to enable the purpose of the operations of the Foundation (legitimate interests). The Foundation also has a statutory duty to collect personal data among other things for the purpose of notifying the authorities of grants and donations awarded.

Register of applicants for donations and scholarships:

Register of grant applications addressed to the Jane and Aatos Erkko Foundation for making decisions on grants.

Register of recipients of donations and scholarships:

For monitoring and payments of grants awarded and for notifying the authorities of the payment of grants. In addition to this for any statistical or research use.

5. Information contents of the register

Register of applicants for donations and scholarships:

The grant applicant's name, title or occupation, contact information, personal or business identity code, gender (optional), purpose or nature of the grant applied for, the amount and application period of the grant applied for, degrees completed by the applicant, referees, funding received over the previous three years notified by the applicant, other funding applications pending notified by the grant applicant, recommendations and statements, other appendixes (degree certificates, CVs, portfolios, research or project plan, list of publications, annual reports etc.) submitted by the applicant and any relevant email communications between the Foundation and applicant.

Register of recipients of donations and scholarships:

In addition to the information above, the date and amount of the grant awarded, account details for the payment of grants and interim and final reports.

6. Regular sources of information

Information is obtained regularly from grant applicants and if necessary from other parties offering financing. Information on the external referee and reference are obtained from the referee at the request of the grant applicant. By submitting an application or request for payment, the applicant consents to the processing of their data in accordance with the purposes.

7. Cookie policy

A cookie is a small text file that a website stores on the visitor's computer when browsing a website and which notifies the website each time the visitor visits the same site. The Jane and Aatos Erkko Foundation uses cookies on its website to track traffic to the Foundation's website and the online service operating in conjunction with it. Cookies are not used for marketing or advertising purposes. Cookies can be disabled or browser settings changed to alert to cookies.

8. Data processors and regular disclosure of information

Information on grant applications and grants awarded are processed by Jane and Aatos Erkko Foundation staff, Board of Trustees, external experts and administrators of electronic systems with whom the Foundation has an agreement on the processing of personal data.

Grants awarded are published on the website of the Jane and Aatos Erkkö Foundation www.jaes.fi and in the Foundation's annual report.

Grants paid are notified to the tax authority and to the Farmers' Social Insurance Institution Mela as required in accordance with section 141 b of the Farmers' Pension Act (1280/2006).

The applicant's information may, where necessary, be disclosed to another party offering financing. Information is disclosed only to the extent necessary. Information might have to be disclosed to the authorities or administrators of justice where there is a legal requirement to do so.

All the persons referred to above who process data have a duty of secrecy regarding the personal data registered in the Foundation's registers.

9. Transfer of information out of the EU or EEA

As a rule, the Jane and Aatos Erkkö Foundation processes and stores personal data in the EU or European Economic Area. However, the Foundation may use service providers processing personal data also outside these areas. In such cases, data protection is ensured as required by data protection regulation.

10. Protection of personal data

The Jane and Aatos Erkkö Foundation protects the data using the necessary technical and organisational measures.

As processors of the personal data in accordance with agreement, the suppliers of the grant system and archive system suppliers ensure protection of the data using the necessary technical and organisational measures and process the data only in accordance with the agreement and mandates with the Foundation.

The persons processing the data have a duty of secrecy.

The manual material is stored in locked premises in the office of the Jane and Aatos Erkkö Foundation where only authorised persons have access.

11. Storage of personal data

Information on rejected grant applications is erased at the end of the year of application, except for information needed for statistical, scientific or historical research purposes (see Article 89 of the General Data Protection Regulation).

Information on grants awarded are stored for the period required by the Accounting Act (incl. applicant's data, award criteria).

Notes to the decision records are stored permanently.

12. Right of access and implementation of the right of access
